

APFF and ASIFMA Conference: Corporate Bonds, Repo & OTC Derivatives Developments in China

16-17 March 2017 | Beijing

Event Factsheet (as of 2 February 2017)

Date: 16 and 17 March 2017 (Thursday and Friday)

Organizer: ASIFMA

Partnering Organizations: ABAC, ADB, CEPS, GIZ, ISDA

Location: The Westin Beijing Financial Street, Beijing, China

Objective: This conference brings together experts from industry and the private sector as well as government and regulatory agencies to examine the various issues that are relevant to China in its effort to develop deep and liquid bond, repo and OTC derivatives markets. Attendees will participate in both interactive and networking sessions.

Program Format: Two-day conference featuring keynote speeches, presentations, panel discussions and networking opportunities.

Day 1 will focus on developments in the Chinese corporate bond market, including the China Interbank Bond Market ("CIBM") opening, and present the findings of the ASIFMA investor survey and the China Capital Markets Paper. Day 2 will focus on Repo's and Derivatives (including netting) on the mainland.

Speakers: Asian and global policy-makers, central bankers, leading market practitioners and industry experts in China capital markets.

Sponsorship: Sponsorship opportunities are open to ASIFMA members and non-members. Active China markets practitioners are particularly encouraged. Please refer to the Sponsorship Proposal for details.

Delegate Profile: This event is expected to attract 200 Chinese policy makers, think tanks and experts from industry and the private sector, initially by invitation-only and then marketed to a wider audience.

Delegate Fees: Invited regulators and confirmed speakers will get complimentary admission. Discounted delegate fee of RMB700 will be offered to members of the co-organisers for this 2-day conference. The original price at RMB900 will apply to other registrants. Sponsors will have free delegate passes according to the entitlements of their selected sponsorship packages.

Press: The conference will be closed to the media. The Chatham House Rule applies throughout the event.
