- Date & Time: 18 January 2016 (Monday), 7.15am – 8.45am
- 7.15am - Reception, Breakfast and Networking
  - 7.45am – Scheme Updates
  - 8.35am - Q&A
  - 8.45am - End of Event

Location: Grand Hyatt Hong Kong (Pool House, 11/F)

Objective: Given the well-received breakfast event on the Shanghai-Hong Kong Stock Connect hosted by ASIFMA around the Asian Financial Forum (AFF) in Hong Kong in January 2015, ASIFMA is hosting another breakfast around AFF 2016 in Hong Kong. This year it will be on the three Asian fund passporting schemes: ASEAN Collective Investment Scheme (CIS) Framework, Mainland-Hong Kong Mutual Recognition of Funds (MRF) and Asia Region Funds Passport (ARFP).

Program format: A discussion by the key regulators of the three Asian fund passporting schemes will be held, with buffet breakfast and networking for participants at the event.

Speakers: Key regulators / representatives from Monetary Authority of Singapore, Securities and Futures Commission, Australian Consulate-General and Asia Pacific Financial Forum

Delegate profile: This event is intended to attract a maximum of 100 participants including key regulators, buy side, sell side and relevant market influencers, initially by invitation-only to ASIFMA Asset Management Group members and then marketed to a wider audience including members of ASIFMA, AFF participants and representatives of regulators.

Sponsorship: Sponsorship package at HKD10,000 includes 4 seats at the breakfast, logo exposure in the event publicity including e-invitation and on-site banner/signage, and acknowledgement in the welcome remarks by ASIFMA. A maximum of 4 sponsors is targeted and will be confirmed on the first-come-first-served basis.

Admission fees: Discounted admission fee of HKD150 for members of ASIFMA and AFF and regulators (original price at HKD250). Refund of the admission fee will be made to attending regulators after they attend the event.

Press: The event is closed to the press.
